

PROVEN HEALTH, FITNESS & LONGEVITY SOLUTIONS FOR THE BODY & MIND

Date: July 8, 2008

"I've been online since 1996 - a veteran to say the least. Having an affiliate program is by far the MOST profitable promotion you can do because you only pay IF you make money. So, it's ZERO risk.

But, it can be time consuming and over the years, I've discovered hiring an Affiliate Management company would be best. Unfortunately, some are extremely expensive and you still never know if they will come through.

Working with ebrandz has been a pleasure. The professionalism, the integrity, the follow-through has been better than I had expected.

They have been very attentive to our needs.

Most companies rarely contact you. They get your money and then hand you off to someone else. But ebrandz has been very good so far and I'm hoping for a very profitable partnership."
